Judging was based on camp orderliness and sanitation and food preparation.

JOHN PLEICH
President, Albany Chamber of Commerce

C. of C. Head To Attend Meet In Washington

John Pleich, president of the Albany Chamber of Commerce, took a plane for Washington, D.C., last night where he will attend a meeting of the U.S. Chamber.

Before leaving he said the trip was designed to familiarize him with conditions elsewhere in the country, and also to discuss some of Albany's local problems with members of the national organization.

Pleich will return the first of the coming week and will report to the directors of the Albany Chamber.

CO. PAYS $30,000 ON BUCHANAN CROSSING

The Albany City Council had a full agenda last Tuesday night, but most of the items were routine. The council did receive a check from the Board of Supervisors for $30,000 from the gas tax fund to help pay for the proposed elimination of the Buchanan grade crossing. Needless to say the voucher was accepted, with thanks.

Under informal discussion for some weeks the council Tuesday night approved plans to hold Alameda County's Veterans Day observance in Albany next November 11. The matter of providing city funds to cover the celebration was held over for consideration at the time the new budget is discussed.

The council also approved a city-county sales tax plan on a 5-year trial basis. This plan would give the County 5 per cent of the one-cent tax now being collected by most cities, but the burden of collection would be assumed by the State. The State would charge two per cent for the collection service. Estimates indicate this plan would give Albany approximately twice the sum now collected.

Passed on first reading was an ordinance establishing a new "hotel district" classification as the first step in opening the city to building of one or more first class hotels. Public hearings will be required before any particular area can be placed in the new category.

Mayor Lewis M. Howell named

WHAT'S DOING

Special schools for telephone people

The young lady at right is putting in her first day with the telephone company. Actually, she's in school, training at a practice switchboard to be an operator. In the same way, lots of other people with no telephone experience have become skilled in telephone work. We run many different schools for our employees, to train them as linemen, service representatives, and so on. This special schooling helps telephone people build better careers for themselves. And it also means your service is always in the hands of well-trained people. The men and women of Pacific Telephone work to make your telephone more useful every day.

Seen "Telephone Time" on TV?

"Telephone Time" is a new dramatic TV series, on home screens in the Pacific West for the first time this month. It is narrated by John Nesbitt and based on his own true stories gathered the world over. This Sunday, "Telephone Time" brings you a suspense story called "Away Boarders". It tells of a risky and important capture during World War II of the German submarine U-505. Each week there will be stories of heroism, comedy, history or warm human emotion—always true, always entertaining. Make "Telephone Time" a regular Sunday viewing habit. Please check your television log for local time and station.

Operation Home Improvement

Pictured is a corner of the model home which is on display in our Oakland Business Office, 1533 Franklin St.

The home is a joint project of Pacific Telephone, Jackson Furniture Co., W. P. Fuller and Co. and the Bank of America in conjunction with the Federal Government's proclamation that 1956 is the year of "Operation Home Improvement."

Along with the model home are many other displays of low-cost home improvement ideas—why not drop in and see them all.
